GARDENING FOR OCTOBER

Now is the time to plant up container grown trees, shrubs, climbers and roses, these can be planted anytime between October and March. Prepare the ground thoroughly, digging it over and work in a bit of organic matter, compost or some manure. If the weather is dry remember to water these in well.

Plant new hedges; smaller plants will generally establish more quickly than larger ones, provided the soil is in good condition and they are kept well weeded and watered.

Plant bare-root plants towards the end of the month, provided the ground is ready and leaves have all fallen off.

As we head into the autumn and we start to get some windier weather check all your tree ties!

Prune late flowering climbing roses and repeat-flowering old fashioned roses.

Trim privet hedges.

Grab your rake and start raking back any fallen leaves from lawns or paths, try storing all your raked up leaves in a compost bin to rot down and make your own leaf-mould.

Remember to enjoy your garden folks!

PLANT UP A BULB SPECTACULAR!

Plant yourself up a never ending bulb tub! Esther who works in the greenhouse has drawn us up a super diagram. Start with the later flowering bulbs at the bottom of the tub and the early-flowering bulbs at the nearer the top. If you are feeling particularly adventurous you can even plant shrubs on top for the bulbs to pop up between! If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to ask one of our Greenhouse staff.

LILY BULBS

Now is the time to pot your Lily bulbs into large pots, five or six in each and keep them cosy over winter in a greenhouse or frost-free shed. You will be the envy of the neighbourhood when they make fabulous patio plants next summer.
